

$500 to Iowa Wildlife Center

Near Ledges State Park, the Iowa Wildlife Center is a new non-profit wildlife rehabilitation and education center. As part of its mission, the Center holds an annual hawk-watch on the High Trestle Trail between Madrid and Woodward. IOU provided funding for this event and funds were also allocated to a day-long “BioBlitz”, a survey of wildlife diversity on the property prior to anticipated habitat restoration efforts.