Mississippi River -- Pool 14
GPS Coordinates: 41.5878290433141,-90.3536975383759
Ownership: None listed
Description:
Habitat:
Directions: At I-80 north of Davenport in Scott Co. Just before the Mississippi River, take the U.S. 67 exit north off I-80. A little less than a mile north on U.S. 67, enter Canal Shore Dr. on your right, a bit tricky to spot. Soon Canal Shore parallels the river with plenty of open viewing, and rejoins U.S. 67 a half mile downriver from I-80, just past a marina. Also see the entry for Lock and Dam No. 14.
Amenities:

Mississippi River Lock & Dam 14 (eBird Hotspot)
GPS Coordinates: 41.5742329,-90.401516
Ownership: None listed
Description:
Habitat:
Directions: About six miles upriver from Bettendorf in Scott Co. The best waterfowl viewing is from the Illinois side, 1.5 miles downriver from I-80 along Ill. Hwy. 84, on the pier at Fisherman’s Corner South R.A. You can walk out the pier after parking. Gull viewing is good here, too, but probably best from the official L&D 14 park on the Iowa side. That park’s entrance is about two miles south along U.S. 67 from I-80. You can walk in quite close to the lock, and there are backwaters at the park that often hold gulls as well.
Amenities:

Mississippi River Lock & Dam 15 (eBird Hotspot)
GPS Coordinates: 41.5194067,-90.5716217
Ownership: None listed
Description:
Habitat:
Directions: In Davenport, Scott Co. Right downtown on River Dr., the next street upriver from U.S. 61/Brady St., near the casino, is Perry St. Pull in at Perry and then turn left directly in front of The Dock Restaurant, and continue to the parking area. From here, go downriver and cross over the U.S. 67 bridge into Illinois. Follow Hwy. 92 upriver, along the R.R. tracks, several streets to 24th St. on your left. Follow 24th onto Rock Island until it meets Rodman Ave., turn right onto Rodman, and then quickly turn left onto Davenport Dr. Follow Davenport along the shoreline for more scoping of gulls when ice is present.

Amenities:
